

Open Agenda Event at St. George's House, Windsor Castle
From policy to practice: what does a successful partnership look like?
2nd – 3rd November 2006
Participants List (as of 20th October)

SGH staying in St. George's House; 4CI staying in 4, The Cloisters

SGH	Aidan Relf	Consultant, Association of Learning Providers
SGH	Andrew Thomson	Chief Executive, Quality Improvement Agency
SGH	Ann Griffiths	Director of Commercial Development & Training, Telford College of Art & Technology
SGH	Barbara Field	Principal, Harrow College
SGH	Carole Timperley	Head of Contracting, A4e
SGH	Catherine Hilton	Executive Regional Manager, Association of SE Colleges
SGH	David Bailey	Director of Strategic Sales, A4e
SGH	Elaine Runswick	Director of Community, Partnerships & Learner Support, Barnet College
SGH	Frances Wadsworth	Principal & Chief Executive Officer, East Surrey College
SGH	George Trow	Principal & Chief Executive Officer, Rotherham College of Arts & Technology
SGH	Glenn Robinson	Train to Gain National Programme Manager, Learning & Skills Council
SGH	Ian Ferguson	Chair, Data Connection Ltd.
SGH	John Dallinson	Vice Principal Curriculum & Planning, Newcastle College
SGH	Lorna Boreland-Kelly	Chair of Governors, Lambeth College
SGH	Margaret Harris	Managing Director, NWLCC Ltd.
SGH	Nick Wilson	Consultant, Carne Wilson & Associate, Open Agenda
SGH	Peter Marsh	Regional Skills Director (SE), Learning & Skills Council
SGH	Richard Chambers	Principal, Lambeth College
SGH	Sandra Harding-Deans	Chief Executive, Association of SE Colleges
SGH	Steve Glassock	Chief Executive, A4e Skills
4 CI	Krysia Hudek	Director, Open Agenda & Fellow, St. George's House
